PRINCIPAL MESSAGE:

Dear Pates and Fort Families,

Happy October! Throughout the month of October, our focus will emphasize Character COUNTS! Earlier this week we were thoroughly entertained by a couple of professional athletes who visits schools to promote character education through Champions for Tomorrow. The students learned about being "PRO" which stands for "practice respecting others". At the end of the month, we will conduct our annual Red Ribbon activities to raise awareness towards this year's Red Ribbon Theme: "Your future is KEY, so STAY DRUG FREE!"

Thursday, October 12th is our first quarter MAC-N-KIDS and SART/IDAC meeting. Ms. Atoyan will present the culture of Armenia. It will be a great opportunity for our Pates to learn about the Armenian culture. Hope to see you there!

We are getting closer to the highly anticipated CARNIVAL! This is one of the most spectacular events where the community and school comes together to make a fun-filled event for our students. Silent auction items are making its way to the Fort. Each classroom is assigned a fun theme for their classroom silent auction basket. Any donation is greatly appreciated! The school Carnival is on Saturday, October 21st from 3pm-7pm. Also, please sign-up to help at your child's classroom booth if you haven't already. Sign-up sheets are posted outside of your child's classroom.

Lastly, thank you SO MUCH for your participation and donation towards our Jog-a-thon fundraiser! We raised over $16,000 for the Fort! Every penny goes right back to support our students. We cannot thank you enough for your generosity and commitment to making the Fort a great place to be! Pates are GREAT!

Sincerely,
Melanie Hashimoto
Principal
