PRINCIPAL MESSAGE:

Dear Pates and Fort Families,

Even though the groundhog determined there would be six more weeks of winter on Groundhog's Day, it sure feels like the warm Spring weather is here to stay. As it gets warmer in the school year, students may wear baseball caps that are Fort Washington, Kastner, and/or Clovis West hats. If a student does not have a ball cap that is affiliated with Fort Washington, Kaster, and/or Clovis West, he or she may wear a plain colored ball cap.

It is softball and baseball season, and you may see some of our Pates with tennis balls during recess. This is because our softball and baseball players may play catch with their mitts during their recess this season only. Thank you for your understanding.

Congratulations to our Oral Interpretation Team! They performed The Wolf's Chicken Stew by Keiko Kasza at the Paul Shaghoian Concert Hall on Tuesday in front of a large audience of peers from other Clovis Unified schools, parents, and a panel of judges. Our Oral Interpretation team left the auditorium with the highest rankings of a Superior rating possible! Way to go Pates!

Sincerely,
Melanie Hashimoto
Principal
